Introduction /

In this document, I'm going to cover the content of a complaint that I would like to make about the staff at [Shoppers World Market 32], a place that I have been going to since 1987... SOMEHOW, SOME of the people who work there...? They're fuckin' stupid. I'll explain in meticulous detail, in this document WHY that is the case.

At first glance, [anyone reading this might think that I'm being an asshole by saying that SOME of the people who work at this place are fuckin' stupid], however...? Consider reviewing the rest of this document, as well as the [audio links] that are below. The first being [01/22/23], and the second being [02/05/23].

[I intend to send this to the governors office], in order to exhibit a showcase example people who are supposed to follow these things called LAWS, AUDIBLY EXPRESSING THAT THEY WOULD PREFER TO BREAK THE LAW, during an audio RECORDING that I was at ^ those above points in time, RECORDING. Some people have no way to understand that I'm just SMARTER than they are, and [they prove that they don't really care, time and time again].

In order to prove that someone like me is MORE INTELLIGENT than a bunch of fuckin' morons, whether they work for the [Golub Corporation], the [New York State Police], the [Saratoga County Sheriffs Office], or wherever...?

You have to whip out this thing called a [smartphone] or [audio recorder] or [video recorder], and just start [recording people without their knowledge]. Sometimes you can even [let them know that they're being recorded], and then you can [record how their behaviors dramatically change after they've been told]. That works too.

This process is called [recording evidence], and SOMETIMES, even the police suck ass at doing this. Sometimes the police will even INTENTIONALLY suck ass at [collecting evidence], too.

In those cases, they'll [hide certain elements of body camera footage] and then have [public defenders/lawyers] [ignore certain portions of that body camera footage], whereby allowing the [state], [government], and [police], to act in nearly an identical way to a [COMMUNIST STATE], [DICTATORSHIP], or a [MONARCHY]... NOT a [DEMOCRACY].

In their eyes, [being a DEMOCRACY is fuckin' stupid], sometimes. That would require [collecting evidence]. That's why they'll [ignore evidence] on a case-to-case basis. Even people in the community may do that, TOO... which is the reason for this fucking document.

Really, [even if you're just (1) person against an ocean full of stupid people that lie about everything]...? Doesn't matter. [Evidence is more powerful than the testimony of a bunch of fucking liars], whether they have BADGES, GAVELS, DOCTORATES, MASTERS DEGREES, or LAW DEGREES...? [Evidence is more powerful than their laurels]. [Consider reviewing this: <https://collateralmurder.wikileaks.org/>]

This tool I've just rattled off, is called [DOCUMENTATION], it often times directly contradicts [HEARSAY].

When [DOCUMENTATION] is combined with things like [Hash values], or [time/date of upload], or even [somebody's voice/face], providing people with things that people can click on (featured BELOW), allows them to [understand the situation at hand], and [how the situation prompted somebody to start RECORDING STUFF].

Really, [that's ALL it takes, to prove you're more intelligent than careless morons], is to [record careless morons doing predictable dumb shit who don't think about their actions ahead of time], or even [minimizing the severity of the actions they decided to take].

Like when former [NYS Governor Andrew "Don't touch me, grandpa" Cuomo] sexually harassed (11) women, and did virtually nothing about the (20) kids that were [crushed to death in a limo in Schoharie in October 2018]...?

When he [continued to play with his dick in a bathtub all day, every day], instead of following in the great former governors [Theodore Roosevelt], [George Pataki], [Eliot Spitzer], or [David Patterson]'s footsteps, as one of the greatest governors the state of New York ever had...?

It showed me, that sometimes the person who happens to think they're TOO IMPORTANT to be caught playing with their fuckin' dick in bathtub, instead of DOING THEIR FUCKING JOB CORRECTLY... ? They have to be PUT IN CHECK from time to time.

That's why [Kathy Hochul] is the governor of the state of New York now, and she's doing great, because the LAW that she signed [S.3467-B/A.4629-C] is the reason for this fuckin' [document], AND the [audio recordings].

Did [Andrew "Don't touch me, grandpa" Cuomo], or [Michael "Bathtub dick-time" Pompeo] sign this fuckin' law into law instead of playing with his dick in a bathtub...? Nah...? Well, alright then.

In her case, it is literally impossible for her to be caught playing with her dick in a bathtub, cause she's a fuckin' woman. At which point, it SHOULD make TOTAL SENSE, to ANYBODY... as to WHY she wouldn't do such a thing.

Look, the reason for this introduction, is because [people constantly underestimate my abilities], [capabilities], or [insult my intelligence], and [they think nothing of it]. It is a CONSTANT THING, and I do not understand it.

I threw [Eliot Spitzer] on that list of great governors because [he actually had a vision and a plan]. He ran circles around this dipshit [Andrew Cuomo] on his best fuckin' day. Even if he was trying to pay for prostitutes, the truth is, at least the prostitutes were willing to flirt with him. In Cuomo's case, not (1) prostitute nor (1) of his female aides wanted to wax his candle, at least not publicly.

In fact, I can think of about (11) cases where he tried his damndest to get at least (1) of them do do that, and they all said: "Nah buddy, I'm all set. Thanks though."

In hindsight, I think that [Eliot Spitzer]'s legacy looks better than [Andrew 'Don't touch me, Grandpa' Cuomo]'s. [Andrew Cuomo] played w/ dick in a bathtub every day + sexually harassed 11 women + lost position being governor, took credit for the [Malta Tech Park] that [Spitzer] had a shitload of involvement in orchestrating beforehand, I think.

[Eliot Spitzer] threw down the gauntlet. Tried to give illegal immigrants the ability to get a drivers license. Didn't play any fuckin' games with people. Told falsehoods to fuck off. Told people how it really was, and the guy actually got laid. Was [Spitzer] perfect...? Fuck no. Dude got caught with his pants down. Didn't sit in the governors mansion even remotely close to as long as [George Pataki]... But, at least [a willing female] was involved in the scandal that brought the man down. Same goes for [William Clinton]. Side point.

In reference to [DOCUMENTATION]...? It's not enough to just RECORD stuff. Nah. You gotta be EXTREMELY SKILLED at [accurately predicting people's predictably stupid fuckin' behaviors], by being MORE INTELLIGENT + OBSERVANT than most people. That's the key. If you do what everybody else in society does, you will NEVER be AS INTELLIGENT + OBSERVANT as myself. Somehow I have the uncanny ability to predict when a bunch of stupid fuckin' ninjas are gonna jump out of trees, throwing shurikens at unsuspecting people. I'll talk about that METAPHOR in a moment...

I have worked at this for over (4) years now, observing people in society doing this [predictably stupid + questionable shit] that everyone seems to casually write off, and it is one of the reasons why I started my company, [Secure Digits Plus LLC] back in [October 2018].

After I did this, I noticed that some [incredibly intelligent people were watching what I was doing], some of them being GOOD GUYS, and some of them being EVIL DIPSHITS using [espionage tools] to [monitor me] or even [steal intellectual property from me] via the [electronic devices I've been using] to [write my notes + documents, record videos + audio logs, taking pictures, and et cetera.]

That's why I have an uncanny advantage over most people, because most people would never detect the things that I have been able to detect. What I mean is, [GLITCHES on my equipment], [security vulnerabilities], [corruption], and things of that nature. I see people do stupid questionable shit EVERY DAY. That's not hard for ME to do.

[I have a knack for making highly respected people look fuckin' careless + stupid] when they CHOOSE to be. [Andrew Cuomo] is (1) of those people, because I kept calling him a sausage wrecker BEFORE the (11) women filed the sexual harassment charges in 2021. Yeah, as far back as like 2018-2019. I kept calling him: [Andrew "Sausage Wrecker" Cuomo]. The man, the myth, the legend, at wreckin' some fuckin' sausages in his day.

My uncle [Rick Smith] was the chef at the [New York State Police] training academy for about (40) years. Every once in a while, my uncle [Rick Smith] would cook up several cases of sausages, and former NYS governor [Andrew "Sausage Wrecker" Cuomo] would show up, and swallow every last one of them whole... whereby making [Takeru Kobayashi] look like a fuckin' chump.

[NYSP Cadet[1]] : ...is that governor [Andrew Cuomo] right there...?
[NYSP Cadet[2]] : looks Yep, sure as hell is.
[NYSP Cadet[1]] : Holy fuckin' dog shit, dude...
 Dude's like destroying everybody and their mother at...
[NYSP Cadet[2]] : ...wreckin' the god damn sausages, huh...?
[NYSP Cadet[1]] : pauses Yeh.

And, that's what they would murmur to one another at the academy whenever [Andrew Cuomo] stopped by for like "quality assurance" purposes. Yeah, sure buddy... whatever you wanna tell yourself.

Look, (1) way to catch people off guard, is to EXPECT that people will continue to do the stupid predictable shit that they do, not unlike how you can set a mouse trap by putting some peanut butter or cheese on it, and then, [don't tell ANYONE about what you've recorded until after the fact], in order to [ensnare some stupid fucks in additional layers of deceit]. That's the part that REALLY fucks some people over.

You can even rub it in, by saying something like “I’m recording this right now.” In a nearly identical way to how anyone can tell the mouse that they left the (peanut butter/cheese) in the mouse trap, if they choose to do the stupid predictable fuckin’ thing they were expected to (do/continue doing)...?

It’ll be because they can’t help that they’re stupid. Because of this, they won’t have a way to realize that when they go to reach for the thing that has been casually placed in front of them... boom. They’re caught. Cause they thought they were fuckin’ smart, just like the fuckin’ mouse was.

They MAY or MAY NOT give a shit that they’re being recorded, AT THAT TIME...?

But- that is the signature behavior of someone who is really fuckin’ stupid, not considering how they’ll look in the recording, and not recording their own recording that covers their ass, or provides more in depth coverage.

You know...? Sometimes people will whip out the recording device, and not include the CONTEXT, or they’ll even edit some of the shit out of the exhibit, in order to highlight their sense of BIAS.

That right there, is ANOTHER tool that I like to use, where I won’t report stuff because I know that some stupid son of a bitch is going to provide a one-sided story as to what occurred during a particular incident... and then I’ll have a way to [REINTRODUCE THE MISSING CONTEXT].

This process causes me to be an even higher caliber of [intelligent bastard]. Wouldn’t you know, even the [Saratoga County Sheriffs Office] and the [New York State Police] are guilty of this sometimes.

As is the case of [06/28/22] and [NYSP Cameron Missenis], [NYSP Sergeant Bosco] and [NYSP Sara DeRusso]. They were told about a piece of [CRITICAL SUPPORTING EVIDENCE] that [DIRECTLY CONTRADICTS] my mothers statement that she made that day. The one that some really careless bitch named [Sara DeRusso] took.

I talk about that event, in [this particular document below].

That is why I’ve been going to [Market 32] and other places to do: (work).

https://github.com/mcc85s/FightingEntropy/blob/main/Records/2023_0130-\(Statement-20220628\).pdf.pdf)

I call it work even though I don’t get paid to do the work I do... Not yet. But sometimes people get paid to do what they call work, even though what they do is equivalent to playing with their dick in a fucking bathtub.

Or in those police officers case that I just mentioned, [performing an unlawful arrest].

[So, allow me to begin making the complaint in general].

I have admittedly attached a video of [NYSP Sgt. Bosco] being wicked gay on [09/12/22], which is irrelevant to this complaint. It is relevant to illuminating how I can ask some gay bastard with a badge for a fellow officers name, and then he will casually pretend as if he doesn’t know [Cameron Missenis]’ full name. That’s why I call him wicked gay. But also, he has a scar on the side of his face that he got from fellating [Andrew Cuomo].

However, it is the area that I have been going to on a rather common basis.

The (2) links there that pertain to the audio recordings I made are the last (2).

The FIRST is about 4 minutes long, which covers how I initially told this kid “MARK” about the law listed above.

[Mark] : NAH I LOOKED IT UP BRO, IT IS ONLY IN OTHER STATES, NOT NEW YORK.
[Me] : Check out this website, it's called "governor.ny.gov"
You've heard of a woman named [Kathy Hochul], the official governor of the state, right...?
[Mark] : I don't even know what a governor is, bro.
What do I look like, some manager at the [Shoppers World Market 32 Customer Service desk]?
[Me] : Uh, yeah.
[Mark] : That's just for show, dude.
I'm some nobody.
I don't even know what the hell I'm doin'.
checks watch Really, I'm not even on the clock.
I just stand here and LOOK like I'm an employee that knows some shit.
[Me] : ...sounds about right.
[Mark] : Yeah, well... Good.
[Me] : Can I talk to your manager...?
[Mark] : I am the manager.
[Me] : Nah, I mean one that isn't a total dipshit.
[Mark] : Buddy, you're askin' for a lot right now, lemme tell ya...
[Me] : Maybe you should like, go to this website that I'm talking to you about, instead of trying to pull some bullshit shady trollmeister 5000 type action on me dude.
Everything you're saying is one bullshit excuse after another, and you know it.
[Mark] : hits squawk box Hey [Super manager 5000]...?
[Mark] : radio outgoing Some wild-eyed lunatic is trying to cash out his gift cards...
[Super manager 5000] : radio incoming We don't do that.
[Mark] : pointing at radio Yeah, you hear that dude...?
We don't even DO that, bro.
So...
[Me] : Nah, a law just got passed that says you have to obey it and follow it.
It's not really OPTIONAL.
[Mark] : radio outgoing Super manager dude on duty, this dude is sayin' some shit about laws.
And how I'm breaking the law.
[Super manager 5000] : radio incoming Arrgh alright, I'm comin' dude.
[Mark] : points at the radio yeah, see, he's comin' dude.
We'll see what's about to go down in a moment.
[Me] : Good.
[Mark] : Good. starts intense staring match with me
[Super manager 5000] : Hey, what seems to be the issue...?
[Mark] : breaks away from the intense staring match This dude says he wants to cash out his gift cards.
[Super manager 5000] : Sir, we don't do that.
[Me] : That's illegal.
[Super manager 5000] : Says who...?
[Me] : [S.3467-B/A.4629-C], the governor of the state of [New York].
It's a new law that just got passed a few weeks ago regarding gift cards.
[Super manager 5000] : Yeah, that doesn't apply to US.
[Me] : Uh, yeah it does.
[Super manager 5000] : Look dude, if it DID apply to us, we would've been told about it.
[Me] : It's not MY JOB to teach you guys how to do YOUR JOBS.
[Super manager 5000] : hands up Look buddy, that law is fuckin' stupid, and so are you.
[Me] : Sounds about right...
[Super manager 5000] : looks at security guy that just so happens to be casually walking by Hey, this guy says that there's a new law regarding gift cards, they can be cashed out if they have less than $5.00 on them...?
[Security guy] : Nah, that's bullshit.
I would know.
I'm the security guy...
[Super manager 5000] : Yeah, you hear that...?
Security guy always knows what he's talking about.
[Me] : He doesn't in THIS case.
You're all acting really stupid, and I'm a [security engineer].
That dude doesn't know what the hell he's talking about, and he's just a [security guard].
Big difference.
I can do every single job in this building, he can't, you can't, and Jim can't.
[Super manager 5000] : Jim, the store manager...?
[Me] : nodding Yeah, it's his job to teach you idiots how to follow things like LAWS.
Even relatively brand new laws that just got passed into law by the governor.
[Super manager 5000] : Yeah, well... you'll have to take it up with him. He'll be in tomorrow.
[Me] : Whatever dude.

At which point, I realized that maybe I could record additional exhibits to make this whole situation even more blatant than it was. Now, did these guys actually say all of that...? No. Listen to the first recording.

While it is not VERBATIM, it is [more entertaining than what was actually said] and [the context is accurate].

The SECOND includes me walking around talking about my friend [Eric Pearson] and how he basically stole my guitar and won't give it back (cause he's sorta gay too). Anyway, in the 2nd recording from [22:10] and on, I record the mishaps at [Market 32 in Shoppers World], and how this manager "Mark" tried to steal 15 cents from me on the night of 02/04/23 at about 8:58PM-9:08PM, not sure...

I traded in (10) pennies, (3) nickles, (5) dimes, and (1) quarter to exchange for (1) dollar bill, and I had (4) dollar bills, and said "I'd like a $5 bill."

But- [Mark] felt like being a moron, and tried to pull a fast one on me.
For some kid who is supposedly a manager who works in customer service...?
This kid is incredibly fuckin' stupid. It's sorta like when my kids would try to lie to me, right...? My kids would ALWAYS get pissed off, when I knew they were lying to me, or trying to be a sneaky mcsneakerton.

This kid is incredibly slow on the fucking cash register and counting change.
I think it is because he has a mental handicap where he exhibits this thing called [PREJUDICE], and doesn't realize it, which falls under [BIAS].

These (2) terms mean that [someone lacks integrity in handling cases consistently all across the board].
Sometimes people who are really stupid will say "It is incredibly difficult to prove someone is biased..."
But, that's because [people who are less intelligent than I am constantly say stuff like that].

It is fucking extremely easy for me to do this on a consistent basis, and even [SCSO Samuel Speziale] knows that I am able to make someone like him look like a careless, biased fucking moron.

As for [Mark], I don't know how long this dipshit has worked in that store, but my cousin [Brandon Cook] used to work there for a long time.

[Brandon], isn't fuckin' stupid. He might have mixed feelings about how I think his mother did something evil to my father and my uncle [Thomas Cook], but consider that I am convinced that my own mother is a deceitful bitch too.

This kid [Mark], certainly fuckin' is a moron, no mixed feelings or anything, [Brandon] could probably wake up on any given day, roll out of bed, not even dress himself, or shower... show up at any given moment, and then outperform this [Mark] dipshit, without putting a whole lot of thought into it at all.

[Brandon] : Hey, what's up [Mike]...?
[Me] : Not much, dude.
[Brandon] : Is this moron giving you problems...?
[Me] : Yeah, he's taking like (5) full entire earth years to count the dollar in change I handed him in the security footage, since there's a camera on every single point of sale, and about 3 or 4 in the food court area.
[Brandon] : Oh wow.
You want me to like, get things moving along much more quickly...?
[Me] : Absolutely.
[Brandon] : Alright, hey [Mark], step aside little man.
An expert finally showed up, you can go now.
[Mark] : ...

Anytime that my cousin [Brandon] was ever on cash register or I think on rare occasions I'd seen him behind the customer service desk, [Brandon], even on his worst day, counted (10) pennies, (3) nickles, (5) dimes, and (1) quarter, light years faster than this fuckin' [Mark] dipshit.

[Mark] : OoooOOhhhHh you're like 15 cents short of a dollar dude.
[Me] : Nah, I handed you (10) pennies, (3) nickles, (5) dimes, and (1) quarter, and you're really stupid, because if I tell corporate what time I came in and handed you the change...? They're gonna see how you counted the change on top of the cash drawer with your back facing me.
[Mark] : So what, dude...?
[Me] : You're gonna wind up having some form of disciplinary action over 15 cents, dude.
How would you like something like that to be on your record...
Fired from Golub Corporation over 15 cents...?
[Mark] : There's NO WAY that I would ever get fired over 15 cents.
[Me] : Nah, listen dude.
You're playing fuckin' games with me right now, and you know it.
Give me the dollar you owe me, or we're gonna settle this outside of this business.
[Mark] : Fine.
hands me the dollar
[Me] : You're really pressing your fuckin' luck dude.
Keep it up, and I might just knock you the fuck out, dude.

And that is basically what I said to this kid. Admittedly, saying something like that may be considered [harassment/intimidation], but what HE was doing, was [PETIT LARCENY].

Had he been in extreme fear of me intimidating him like I did...? He should have called the police. He didn't, because he thought that nobody would ever notice that he thought that I was stupid.

That means, he knows he was in the wrong, and decided to quietly tell other people about the incident.

That's not how I would talk to ANY OTHER EMPLOYEE WHO WORKS THERE, unless they were giving me an attitude. I've been going to this place for months. I don't go around telling people I'm gonna do something to them. Not at all. [Alexandra Gutelius] didn't seem to understand this concept either...

If someone is going to a place for MONTHS to do [RESEARCH/WORK/ETC.], but then SUDDENLY, someone who works at a place decides to say "OMG OMG, DUDE SAYING WICKED AGGRESSIVE STUFF~! OMG. HELP~!"

It indicates that someone did something stupid, and they thought they were being slick. Which is exactly what Mark was doing.

I then recorded an additional instance of me going into the store around [02/05/23 12:01PM].

Position	Party	Transcription
[22:10]	MCC	Last night, I went to trade a bunch of cha-, like a dollar of change, and a dude who's like a cashier here at [Price Chopper Market 32], right...? (Mark)
[22:24]	MCC	...and uh- ya know, holy shit, like uh [Governor Kathy Hochul], like passed a law into law, recently about how uh-
[22:35]	MCC	...gift cards, any gift card with less than $5.00 on it...?
[22:41]	MCC	...is able to be, uh- clears throat...
[22:44]	MCC	...is able to be, uh... re- get the cash, uh, amount-...
[22:50]	MCC	...if it has less than $5.00 on it, someone can redeem the cash that that card is worth.
[22:55]	MCC	Right...? And like the people at [Market 32], they've been like, arguing with me about that, and "We're not gonna DO that..."
[23:03]	MCC	And (now) that's illegal... and uh, there's a law that says that they're not legally allowed to do that, but- they're doin' it anyway...
[23:09]	MCC	And then, like I have to make an audio recording of people doin' this stupid shit that they do, right...?
[23:16]	MCC	Some people don't CARE that they're being recorded.
[23:20]	MCC	They know that they're being recorded, but like, ya know, I think what it all comes down to, is this, right...?
[23:30]	MCC	The (2) gift cards that I have, that are, that have like, LESS than (75) cents on them...?
[23:35]	MCC	...is probably gonna cost [Market 32] about [$10,000.00] of FINE MONEY, for me making the audio recording that I did...
[23:42]	MCC	...of an employee refusing to give me the cash value of the gift cards, based on the law that [Kathy Hochul] passed back in [December].
[23:53]	MCC	Ya know, December 11, 2022, if you have a gift card for basically anywhere...? And it has a balance of less than $5.00...? You are able to bring that to the place that authorized the gift card, and get that in cash. And if the place refuses to do it...? Then send the fucking evidence to the governors office, and they're gonna get fined or something. Right...?
[24:18]	MCC	The people at [Market 32], the same kid that I talked to last night, uh- like I talked to him, IDK, back on like, January 21st or something...? (It was @ 01/22/23 16:43) and I've been kinda lettin' it sit around for a while, right...? Uhm...
[24:33]	MCC	This kid, saw me last night he's like "Whaddya need...?" I say "I would like to return, trade this dollar of change I have for a paper dollar." And so I hand him a quarter, (5) dimes, (3) nickels, and (10) pennies, and I'm god damn CERTAIN that's what I handed him, because I COUNTED it, on the security camera, footage, anybody at Market 32 that can have access to the security footage, they can go around, and listen to uh- they can watch the footage of me counting the change on the fuckin' counter...? Where I've been doing my work. Right...?

[25:34]	MCC	And, they could see that this fuckin' kid tried to pull a fast one on me last night, at about, IDK, when did he do it...
[26:00]	MCC	I'm lookin' through all this, all my text messages from last night...
[26:12]	MCC	So at some point between like, uh [02/04/23 20:58]... and, like [21:08] or, some point around there, right...? And, why don't I do this...
[26:32]	MCC	Why don't I... locks bike up walk through the store... right...?
[26:39]	MCC	And I'll go to the EXACT AISLE that he was at. (He was originally at the self checkout register area, then we walked toward (17/18) Or, not the AISLE, but the CHECKOUT, right, so...?
[26:48]	MCC	What I'm DOING by making this AUDIO RECORDING...? Is I'm proving that uh- that I can DOCUMENT things a lot like, uh- the police SHOULD do, right...?
[26:57]	MCC	Like do you EVER think that like, MAYBE the police, when they INTERVIEW people, that they like RECORD people when they're TALKING to them, or like the INVESTIGATORS, they record people when THEY talk to them...?
[27:08]	MCC	Because I think they should GIVE IT A SHOT... I think they should RECORD the people that they talk to, THAT WAY... when uh- when they go around and they compare all the evidence and stuff, right...? And, uh-
[27:28]	MCC	Alright, here's this kid right here. Hey buddy, what's your name...?
[27:31]	Mark	I'm NOT giving you my name.
[27:32]	MCC	Nah, you should because I gotta report you to uh, corporate.
[27:33]	Mark	silent, trying to be wicked nonchalant about things the same exact way as this homosexual named NYSP Sergeant Bosco was on 09/12/22 in this recording... https://youtu.be/a9w9oSNvMQM
[27:41]	MCC	Hey, what's this kids name right here...?
[27:43]	Girl[1]	shrugs
[27:45]	MCC	Is he your manager...? No...?
[27:48]	Girl[1]	He's not my manager.
[27:50]	MCC	Hey, excuse me...? walks to the other side of the store to the last cashier near the pharmacy Ma'am...? Uh, I have uh, complaint to make against uh, a cashier that's been workin' at customer service, and I don't know his name...? If I- could you walk down with me...
[28:22]	Woman[1]	I'm with a customer right now, I can't, uhm, I can call somebody.
[28:29]	MCC	Sure. So what I'm doing right now, is I'm-
[28:34]	Woman[1]	We're not allowed to leave our registers (in certain cases I'm certain they CAN...)
[28:36]	MCC	I apologize, I'm sorry. I didn't realize that.
[28:39]	Woman[1]	Yeah, uh can't really uh
[28:40]	MCC	It- it's this kid with the black, uh, with the black hoodie on, right here. pauses It's the kid with the black hoodie on that says [Nike] pauses Yeah, he's passing 17 right now, and 18.
[28:57]	Woman[1]	That's management.
[28:59]	MCC	Yeah I know, I- I know he's management, I'm trying to get his name.
[29:01]	Girl[2]	Sir, can I help you...?
[29:02]	MCC	Yeah, I wanna file a complaint against this dipshit over here.
[29:04]	Girl[2]	OK, if you would like to wait, my manager (the person I want to file a complaint against) is gonna be right out.
[29:07]	MCC	Can I get his name...?
[29:10]	Girl[2]	If you're gonna speak about my supervisor like that, absolutely not. If you would like to wait, my manager will be right with you. (I've worked retail before, this girl is COVERING the supervisor that I'd like to file the complaint against. And this girl is STALLING the COMPLAINT that I'm filing.)

[29:13]	MCC	What's- what- ma'am...?
[29:18]	Girl[2]	Excuse me sir... (mind your business little girl, you've been of no help.)
[29:19]	Woman[2]	Mark. (This lady is one of the nicest ladies that works at this store. One day, she saw that I had like no money, and she opened her purse, and spent a dollar to help me pay for the donuts or the apple or something, can't rememeber.)
[29:21]	MCC	Thank you. His name's Mark.
[29:22]	Girl[2]	Ok. Cool. If you would like to wait for my manager...
[29:25]	MCC	Nah, that's alright, I'm gonna wait for [Jim] (the store manager).
[29:26]	Girl[2]	decides to shut the hell up at this point, and leave the work to a professional that knows who the hell manages the fucking store

Oh wow.

I have detected MULTIPLE CODE INFRACTIONS in this particular audio recording.

Most normal people won't be able to DETECT the CODE infractions, however... Uh- multiple people delaying the complaint making process, not giving me the dudes name, telling me to wait, and expecting that I'm gonna be OK with sitting around, waiting for the manager to come and talk with me...?

Nah, I'm all set.

During this silence, I saw the manager on duty who was just STANDING THERE WATCHING ME.

Wasn't approaching me at all.

Wasn't DOING anything except just looking at me... drinkin' his fuckin' energy drink or whatever near the cookie and cracker aisle.

Uh-oh. Then I realize that the manager that I was supposed to be talking to about the complaint I wanted to make, was the guy I was looking at near the cookie/cracker aisle.

I don't know this dude's name, but he occasionally takes his lunch break right next to where I've been doing my work, near where the Starbucks girl Marja works... This dude felt that his best idea was to drag his lazy dick around, and take an additional (5) years to come and write up my complaint.

The dude was not doing anything except LOOKING AT ME, EXHIBITING THIS THING CALLED [BIAS]

Sorta like [SCSO Samuel Speziale] was doing in this audio recording:

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1GVRrNiwlU0Gfwb907LtYQAOAe_1i2_YC

I have a knack for making people look really lazy, incompetent, moronic, slow, stupid, and egregious.

I'm HIGHLY SKILLED AT THIS, and I can DO THIS TO POLICE OFFICERS and even JUDGES like PAUL PELAGALLI.

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1J0CzI1nW5xwmWbwUVwOEMbHLUiZYEr4p>

People don't seem to get it through their fucking skulls.

IT. DOES. NOT. MATTER. WHO. YOU. ARE...

IF. YOU. DO. STUPID. SHIT. AND. UNDERESTIMATE. ME. THEN. IT. WILL. BLOW. UP. IN. YOUR. FACE.

[29:51]	MCC	Are you part of management...?
[29:53]	Manager[2]	Oh, I am. I heard all about you, last night.
[29:55]	MCC	Yeah, this kid Mark.
[29:57]	Manager[2]	Why are you harassing people, though...? You were harassing the whole front end I heard. (← that's called hearsay, dipshit.)
[30:02]	MCC	Nah, I was trying to get his name.
[30:02]	Manager[2]	Why...? (To file a complaint to corporate.)
[30:03]	MCC	Because I have a complaint to file against the store.
[30:05]	Manager[2]	Well, I have a complaint, too.
[30:07]	MCC	About what...?
[30:08]	Manager[2]	Ok...?
[30:09]	MCC	What's that...?
[30:09]	Manager[2]	You like to hang out in the food court all day, every day. (It's cause I do work, there. Try doing what I do, dude. I can do everything you do at this store, better than you can, more efficiently, on my first day.)

[30:12]	MCC	So what...?
[30:13]	Manager[2]	I can throw you outta here for that. (Not if other people are also doing that, and you're not kicking them out. That's called BIAS you moron. Read a dictionary sometime. Also, look up [S.3467-B/A.4629-C])
[30:16]	MCC	It's a public spot.
[30:17]	Manager[2]	No, we're privately owned.
[30:18]	MCC	Ok...? But also, I have an AUDIO RECORDING, of an employee of yours REFUSING to give me the cash balance of my gift cards.
[30:25]	Manager[2]	Ok...
[30:26]	MCC	Did you know that's against the law now...?
[30:27]	Manager[2]	Is it...? (You shouldn't question it, you should RESEARCH it.)
[30:28]	MCC	Yeah it is.
[30:29]	Manager[2]	Oh...
[30:30]	MCC	Yeah, do you know Jim...? (obviously he does.)
[30:32]	Manager[2]	Yeah.
[30:33]	MCC	Ok, do you know [Neil Golub]...?
[30:37]	Manager[2]	voice cracks Who's that...?
[30:39]	MCC	[Neil Golub] is the guy who's like the CEO of [Price Chopper Corporation]...?
[30:42]	Manager[2]	He is...? 10 years ago...
[30:42]	MCC	He WAS... pauses Oh, ok. He still talks with the guy who OWNS Price Chopper, or the CEO, right...?
[30:50]	Manager[2]	What are you like, threatening me...? Like...?
[30:50]	MCC	Well no, I'm RECORDING you. I'm recording your responses, like you have some snippy fuckin' customers or uh- [employees], right...? Like you're being snippy with me right now. (Notice how NOW, the dude isn't being wicked snippy with me, and he's keeping his fuckin' mouth shut...? It's because he didn't realize that he was being recorded... And NOW his attitude has COMPLETELY changed. OH BOY. OH BOY. Michael C. Fuckin' 'Lived in Clifton Park NY for about 36 fuckin' years' Cook, outsmarting some snippy fuckin' employees who sorely underestimated me. Again.)
[31:01]	Manager[2]	You're RIGHT~! Cause I got a complaint last night on YOU...~!
[31:01]	MCC	Right. pauses About what...? About the audio recording that I recorded of HIM refusing to give me the CHANGE that I asked for...? I gave him a DOLLAR, I gave him (10) pennies, (5) dimes, (3) nickels, and a quarter...
[31:06]	Manager[2]	Ok.
[31:18]	MCC	You know how you're nodding and likem, smiling basically...? You're giving me an attitude.
[31:21]	Manager[2]	I am. pauses
[31:21]	MCC	You need an attitude adjustment. Basically, me making the audio recording is the attitude adjustment.
[31:27]	Manager[2]	Ok, that's good.
[31:27]	MCC	Yeah, it IS good. It's REALLY good.
[31:30]	Manager[2]	Now get out of my building.
[31:31]	MCC	Uh, it's not your building.
[31:33]	Manager[2]	I'm gonna ask you to leave.
[31:36]	MCC	Nah, I'd rather speak to [Jim].
[31:36]	Manager[2]	We'll have the police escort you out of the building.

Notice how I stated that I wanted to FILE A COMPLAINT AGAINST AN EMPLOYEE, and how this MANAGER doesn't write anything down, because he's being a snippy asshole that thinks he's in control of the situation.

Oh, ok. Nobody filed a god damn thing regarding how some kid who works there is giving me an attitude, and then I have some girl give me an attitude when speaking about her supervisor or whatever, and then I get an attitude from the dipshit manager that was supposed to be approaching me to file a complaint about the supervisor, and then I find out that nobody's gonna write a god damn thing down, just like [SCSO Samuel Speziale]...?

The reason why people start to develop an ATTITUDE and their LIMBS go LIMP, is because they're:
[EXHIBITING BIAS].

-----/-----

I do not come to this place EVERY DAY.

I DO come here quite often.

However, I also go to OTHER places, for instance the [Clifton Park Halfmoon Public Library].

Or, the [Town of Halfmoon Town Hall] (the entire building runs off of geothermal power, cause the people who built the fuckin' place were fuckin' geniuses, btw. That means they spend (0) dollars on power.).

Or like, hotels and coffee shops.

That said, I saw the content of the first exhibit above, almost (2) months ago when I saw [Julie Chapman] talk about [Kathy Hochul] signing the [Gift Card Law] on [Spectrum News 1].

I will occasionally watch [Spectrum News 1] when I'm doing something like: casually eating breakfast. [Julie Chapman] is the female news anchor who has held down the proverbial [Spectrum News] fort, near the [Crown Plaza Hotel] that I used to go to all the time when I worked for [I Love NY Pizza at 552 Central], and [Mild Wally's at 189A Quail Street], in [Albany, NY 12203-12206].

Anyway, [Julie Chapman] said it on the news...

[Chapman] : Listen up ya fucks...

 Friggen [Kathy god damn Hocul] just signed the gift card law, into law.

 So, you need to know the basics about the ins and outs of this friggen law, or else.

 Anybody in the state of New York that has a gift card with less than $5.00 on it...?

 [Kathy Hochul] was lookin' out for ya...

 ...cause now you can take that card back to the vendor, and get it cashed out.

[Bazile] : ...ho-ly fuck, dude~!

[Chapman] : nodding Cool as fuck, isn't it...?

[Bazile] : Yeh, dude, holy hell.

 I've got a whole bunch of old gift cards out the ass that I've been leavin' hanging around n shit.

[Chapman] : Yeah, well... NOW if there's a balance of less than $5.00 on it...?

[Bazile] : ...you can go to the issuer and get it cashed out...?

[Chapman] : excitedly nodding Yup.

[Bazile] : Woooooow, dude.

 That's...

[Chapman] : Fuckin' awesome, isn't it...?

[Bazile] : Julie, how long have we been working together, tellin' people like it really is...?

[Chapman] : Oh, gosh...

 Years, dude.

[Bazile] : That's right, [Julie Chapman].

 We don't play games here, at [Spectrum News 1].

^ Obviously not a verbatim summary of the story that actually aired, but- the context is accurate.

Gift cards with a balance of $5.00 or less can be cashed out, no if's, and's or but's.

Ya know, even [Heather Morrison] got involved...

[Morrison] : No we do not, [Dan Bazile]...

 That story you just rattled off just gave me the same feeling that I predict in my forecast for the day...

[Bazile] : Oh yeh...?

[Chapman] : ...really...?

[Morrison] : excitedly nodding That's right, guys.

 Sunshine.

 All day.

 No clouds in sight...

[Chapman] : Wow, no clouds, eh...?

[Morrison] : Nah, not at all.

 starts using hands Look, local weatherwoman comin' at ya with the weather on the 9's...

[Chapman] : Heather, we haven't done weather on the 9's for some time now...

[Morrison] : My bad, weather on the 1's...

[Chapman] : cocks head slightly That's right... [Spectrum News 1]...?

[Morrison] : ...weather on the 1's.

[Morrison] : Yeah, well, that means I have to wait around for a couple of minutes... and I wanted to talk about this story about the gift cards.

[Bazile] : looks at the camera crew ...can we let her go a little early...?

[Crew] : silent, making hand gestures

[Bazile] : I mean, they say it's ok if you do a weather on a 9 here or there...

[Morrison] : Well, good.
 starts using hands Here's a map, folks.
 Lots of colors, numbers, letters, and a line that sweeps around, giving you a play-by-play look at the weather for today.
 Around noon, a cloud MIGHT make the occasional appearance, but the chances of that are slim to none.

[Chapman] : So like, 5% chance of clouds...?

[Morrison] : nodding That's right, [Julie].
 We ain't playin' any fuckin' games today...

[Bazile] : Well, glad to hear it [Heather Morrison].
 What about for the rest of the week...?

[Morrison] : Uh, well smiles, chuckles, heh.
 Glad you asked, [Dan Bazile]...
 Tomorrow, the clouds will DEFINITELY make an appearance because there's about a 25 to 30 percent chance of rain, temps are gonna be somewhat mild, anywhere between 30 to 40 degrees, and ninjas might jump out of trees throwing shurikens and shit...

[Bazile] : ...ninjas you say...?

[Morrison] : nodding excitedly Yeh, dude.
 Probably didn't seem like that'd be a weather-worthy description for the day, huh...?

[Chapman] : ...nah.

[Morrison] : Yeah, well... the weather is pretty unpredictable, guys.

[Bazile] : Alright, so, these ninjas are gonna throw shurikens...?

[Morrison] : That's right. But- lets move on with the weather, that's only tomorrow.
 The rest of the week is gonna be pretty nice.
 We're talkin', no real chance of rain, temps between 30-40 degrees until the weekend...
 But, the weekend, we're gonna have a real shitstorm on our hands.
 High chance of precipitation, could be ice...? Could be snow...?
 Who the hell knows.

[Chapman] : chuckles Jeez, ninjas jumping out of trees throwing shurikens sounds fuckin' dangerous...

[Morrison] : I mean, you're makin' a million dollar statement right there, [Julie Chapman].
 Nobody knows why they're suddenly making an appearance.
 It's almost like they think they own the fuckin' place, or somethin'.

[Bazile] : ...what the fuck, dude.
 What should we tell our viewers, in order to protect themselves from the elements...?

[Morrison] : shakes head As for the weather, dress normally. Coat, maybe some gloves...?
 As for the fuckin' ninjas jumping out of trees, throwing the shurikens...?
 I have no fucking clue, guys...
 Maybe tell the viewers to just be on the lookout, maybe even study the sacred art of Ninjitsu.
 Other than that...?
 It's anybody's guess as to what type of damage these fuckin' ninjas are gonna cause.
 They're basically worse than hail.
 Back to you, guys.

^ Capitalization on HUMOR. No, they don't ever talk about ninjas jumping out of fuckin' trees throwing shurikens, but the weather is about as unpredictable. Even the real life [Heather Morrison] would agree to that.

In other words, it's difficult to accurately nail down the weather. Same goes for pissed off ninjas with deadly bladed knives that are meant to be thrown at enemies and blocked with swords. Is the average person gonna know ahead of time to make damn certain that they have a sword on hand, to ricochet the annoying fuckin' shurikens that they're gonna throw...?

Nah. But, you know, how many possible ninjas are out there, lurking within the trees, waiting for the perfect weather condition, to jump out of trees bugging the fuck out... with nothing but seething vengeance and anger in their hearts...? I'm gonna go out on a limb here, and say that shit is pretty stupid.

But, SHOULD ninjas start doing this, causing untold mayhem and destruction...?
 Then, people are gonna start keeping track of the "maniac ninjas jumping out of trees" phenomenon.
 Given enough events, people will start getting prepared for this shit, because they figured it out...
 Something that sounded fuckin' stupid months or years ago, eventually becoming a fucking nightmare.

[Person] : These fuckin' ninjas are no joke, dude.
 What the fuck.
 I'm not gonna stand for this shit, and I'm gonna make damn certain to be on the lookout for these evil sons of bitches.

Hence, the game [Shinobi III: Return of the Ninja Master]. The ninja master was able to accurately predict that the stupid fuckin' ninjas were gonna jump out of every nook, corner, crevice and tree... showing up to rear their ugly heads, each one being tougher than the last. At the end of each stage, the boss would show up, and lose.

That's why the gift cards make a perfect metaphor here, because SOME of the people who work at Price Chopper Market 32 in Shoppers World Clifton Park...? They're basically acting as stupid as the predictable evil ninjas jumping out of fuckin' trees... throwing shurikens like fuckin' lunatics, and nobody seems to be keeping tabs on how many times people are getting screwed out of the money left on their gift cards.

It's the year 2023. (2) fuckin' slices of pizza and a soda with the lunch combo pack of doom, is like $5.35. So, if you have less than $5.00 on the fucking gift card...? Might as well go fuck yourself. That's what the staff unwittingly tell people when they buy these gift cards. That's ALSO why I recorded the incident on 01/22/23 at like, 16:43. The reason why I make so many audio recordings, is because I'm like the ninja master in Shinobi III.

Anyway, this dude 'Mark', who works at the customer service desk at the [Clifton Park Shoppers World Market 32] doesn't understand this concept of me having worked retail, and knowing all of the bullshit responses he might have, AHEAD of time.

I've been featured on the news before, doing work that's a lot more difficult than what this dipshit does any given day of the fucking week. Here are some videos that showcase that I'm a fuckin' expert with COMPUTERS...? But I'm ALSO an expert on predicting when people are gonna start acting fuckin' stupid.

I have a whole shitload of videos that demonstrate that I can do MARKS job, and I can even walk in and do JIM's fuckin' job too.

Jim is the store manager that I've not had any issues with, but when I heard about how he INSTRUCTED the employees to REFUSE giving the remainder of the cash on the card to people (like myself...?) Well, I had anticipated at some point that I'd have to whip out a link to the document that I handed him back in July.

I think I've since deleted it, however, here's an UPDATE to that document that I handed Jim, back in August... As well as a video... of me writing the extended version of that document with the links to audio files that the investigators at the NYSP haven't done a god damn thing to 1) collect, 2) review, and then 3) relinquish the fucking charges I'm facing with [Halfmoon Town Justice Joe Fodera]. It could've happened already if the police did this thing called: [collecting evidence]. From what I have observed, they: [ignore evidence].

I'm seeking to have the charges dismissed with prejudice, and then to have the (4) officers I've repeatedly named, (namely Cameron Missenis, Sgt Bosco, Sara DeRusso, and Trooper Ruffas), provided with DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS that range from: 1) suspension, 2) termination, 3) criminal charges, 4) imprisonment, or 5) civil $$$.

Yeah I mean, SCSO is sorta involved here too. So are the agencies at Saratoga County + Family Court + Children's Protective Service + Sheriffs Office. SOME of the people at these agencies are just as fuckin' stupid/predictable as this kid [Mark], [William Moak], and [the ninjas in the trees in Shinobi III: Return of the Ninja Master].

Those are all videos I've recorded in the last few days.

They each include some link to various components of the work that I do on a daily basis.

Sometimes, I don't feel like doing the programming, so I will start writing documents such as this.

Do I get carried away by characterizing people casually tossing around vulgarities...?

Sure, whether they work at [Spectrum News 1] or somewhere else...? Uh, laughing about the dumb shit I write causes me to get back into the productive frame of mind so that I can continue doing something that's incredibly fuckin' stressful and complicated.

As for [Andrew "Don't touch me, grandpa" Cuomo]...?

I think that's a bit of an upgrade from [Andrew "Sausage Wrecker" Cuomo].

Ya know...? He might even agree to that...

Even his brother, former CNN news anchor, [Chris Cuomo] would probably agree...

[Andrew Cuomo] : Hey, "Don't touch me, grandpa" isn't THAT BAD of a middle name.

Sure beats "Sausage wrecker"...

[Chris Cuomo] : Well, even dad would admit that's a bit of an upgrade right there, bro.

And everybody knows, [Chris Cuomo] doesn't fuck around when it comes to the facts.

Any application developer will tell you that it's not really all that fun to sit around and FORCE yourself to think about how to achieve a particular solution, UNLESS of course you have something that already works, and you want to recreate it to make it more efficient, or less time-consuming, or what have you.

I think that once people consider that I have a mentality that is nearly IDENTICAL to [George Carlin] and other famous comedians, that people will actually enjoy some of my rhetoric and comedy.

I think that once people consider that I have the same sort of intelligence to guys like [Jordan Peterson], [Noam Chomsky], and [Jeremy Rifkin]...? People will start to make exceptions when it comes to my language.

I'm not gonna do the same thing these guys have done, because I understand how to take their general, overall MESSAGE, and make it more INTERESTING, and then... be able to cause people to laugh about the dumb shit that even these guys have predicted.

These guys are experts at being intelligent and sounding intelligent.

I like to switch between using the sort of language, and strategies that showcase that I'm rather dynamic when it comes to influencing MORE PEOPLE to CARE about the SAME DEVISIVE ISSUES that these guys talk about.

- 1) climate change
- 2) dumbasses in the government who lie a lot
- 3) [Julien Assange] + [Edward Snowden] exposing highly-respected cuntrags who lie a lot and kill people
- 4) dumbasses in the corporate world who like to short sell companies like [Tesla], and [SpaceX], or [Elon Musk] in general
- 5) people that like to hold grudges because they get wicked butt hurt by not understanding the point of what they say...

For instance, [Noam Chomsky] caught some flak for defending some dude who wrote a book in [France] about [anti-semitism/trying to undermine the treachery of how evil and tyrannical the Axis powers were in Europe during the Holocaust].

[Noam Chomsky] [wasn't defending what the guy fucking wrote].

[Noam Chomsky] was [defending his ability to express himself].

Some people are really fuckin' stupid, and they failed to understand the sentiment.

Same thing sorta happened to [Jordan Peterson], where some woman had an interview with him regarding free speech.

[Lady] : Oh, oh, but you're like a chauvinistic fuckface that has no respect for women or whatever~!

[Peterson] : No I'm not...

What the hell gave you THAT idea...?

[Lady] : Oh, well, uhm, it's what I fucking HEARD about YOU, dude...

[Peterson] : Oh, so you HEARD somebody say something about what I said, or whatever...?

[Lady] : crosses arms Yyyyyyup, sure as hell did~!

[Peterson] : Oh, ok, well, guess that means I've fucking failed at life and everything, huh...?

[Lady] : still has arms crossed Yyyyyyup.
You're a REAL douchebag, [Dr. Jordan Peterson].
Tisk tisk.

[Peterson] : You know, I'm not the REAL douchebag, lady.
I'm just the only guy out there who's apparently trying to keep it real with people.
It's not my fault that the human condition is pretty flawed.

[Lady] : still has arms crossed You're pretty flawed, the human condition is perfectly fine.

[Peterson] : Nah, look lady...
I'm not gonna come right out and say the words that you're pretty fuckin' stupid, alright...?
grabs coffee, takes a sip, long pause

[Lady] : ...oh, you're not, now, are you...?

[Peterson] : Nah...

[Lady] : Well, if you're not gonna come right out and say it, what ARE you sayin'...?

[Peterson] : Have you ever heard of a friggen badass who goes by the name, Noam Chomsky...?

[Lady] : Ohhhh, I've heard of [Noam friggen Chomsky], buddy.

[Peterson] : Yeah, well, he's arguably one of the most important intellectuals of our time.

[Lady] : So they say...

[Peterson] : Manufacturing consent and shit.

[Lady] : People being killed in friggen [Cambodia/East Timor].

[Peterson] : That's right.
Entire fields of people working their hands to the bone, being killed by the hundreds.
Thousands even.

[Lady] : Well, that is pretty fuckin' evil...

[Peterson] : Yeah, and do you know what they DO to people who voice their opinions over there...?

[Lady] : ...what do they do...?

[Peterson] : sneers Lady, you don't even wanna know what the hell they do to those poor people, for even LOOKIN' at the wrong guy, the wrong way...

[Lady] : nervous gulp, stuttering ...f-f-for lookin' at the wrong guy the wrong way...?

[Peterson] : nodding Yep.
They'll cut somebody's head right off their body for lookin' at somebody the wrong way.

^ The actual debate they had sounded nothing like that, but the fake conversation I just typed up talks about this video right here...

Look. I can walk into any fucking [Market 32] anywhere in the state of [New York], right...?
I can do every single fucking job in any of those stores. I used to deliver the bundles of newspapers from the [Times Union] to [Walmart], [Price Chopper], [Stewarts], and a bunch of other fuckin' places.

I also worked for a short while at [Walmart] after the [Hearst Corporation] sold my fuckin' contracts to [Hamilton News]. I'd like to see this dipshit [Mark] do half the shit I've done. He'll probably need a juice box and a 5 hour nap after reading this fuckin' document, alone.

Slicing meat, cooking food, fryers, grill, making coffee, ringing customers out, doing shit at customer service, talking to customers, managing employees, stocking shelves, unloading palettes, I can literally do every fucking job in any fucking store, and I will outperform any person in any store I walk into, on my first night.

I'm a fucking beast. People think I'm making sheer exaggerations. I'm not exaggerating a fucking thing.

I could literally, walk into any particular store, do any single job in the store, repair the computers, point of sale devices, receipt printers, cash registers, self checkouts, surveillance cameras, wireless access points, office computers, the pharmacy terminals, whatever fucking device in the building that has a computer in it...?

I can fix that fucking device.

If I can fix [Apple iPhones] and I posted a link to me doing that back in 2018...?

I can fix the same equipment that I serviced when I worked for [Daniel Pickett] at [Nfrastructure] in 2010.

I can even configure the fucking routers, switches, and access points, and run my own fucking ethernet cables and even implement [System Center Configuration Manager] on every single connected device connected to the [Golub Corporation] headquarters, since I've literally been programming a module for [PowerShell] called:

[FightingEntropy(π)]

In fact, I've already posted the latest version of the functions I've been working on, and it's featured in New-VmController (Flight Test) <https://youtu.be/nqT0mNIilxw>

Here's (2) videos where I work with a customized version of the [Microsoft Deployment Toolkit] for [PowerShell]
[FightingEntropy(π)][FEInfrastructure] https://youtu.be/6yQr06_rA4I
[FightingEntropy(π)]://FEWizard PowerShell Deployment <https://youtu.be/LZX5fAgcz0>

I think the problem is that people think I'm making sheer exaggerations.
Saying the words "I'm building a billion dollar program", they tend to cause people to IMMEDIATELY flat out reject the idea and anything I say thereafter.

And, it's pretty predictable, because then I can whip out examples of how long I've been knowing what the hell I'm (saying/doing). For instance, I had my own website (that I made) on PlanetQuake back in 2001, for my [Quake III Arena] maps that I ALSO made, when I was (15) years old.

Yeah. All that shit existed before [Facebook], [Reddit], [YouTube], and a ton of other (websites/companies).

Suffice, that's why I whipped out the metaphor for [Shinobi III: Return of the Ninja Master].
Because, I see the fuckin' ninjas hanging out in the fucking trees, waiting for the perfect weather condition to arrive before they jump out of the fuckin' trees, throwing shurikens at unsuspecting victims.

It's a perfect metaphor for how predictable the IDENTITY THIEVES + CYBERCRIMINALS are, but also COPS and PEOPLE.
Since that is what I was having to constantly deal with when I worked at [Computer Answers] (not so much cops).

Most people don't seem to understand what makes me 'tick'...

I'm like a parrot, I'm an incredibly fast learner. When I learn something, I then think about the work I do when I'm NOT working, and I think of ways to make my life + job easier. Most people either CAN'T or WON'T do this.
I don't really understand it.

Comic Relief /-----\

I wrote a skit back in [January 2020] called "Exceptions", where I talk about some dude named [Jim] who works at a company with a bunch of other people. [Jim] doesn't fuck around. [Jim] does all of the work for everybody, so that THEY don't have to do it.

[Jim] stocks the styrofoam cups on the fucking water cooler, like a dependable dude that cares about getting the work done for other people. [Jim] cares about other people more than other people care about [Jim]. That's why they're ALWAYS standing around the fucking water cooler at work, every morning... talking about some stupid fucking movie that JUST came out...

Guy[1] : Hey, I saw fuckin' [Frozen II] last night with my kid...
Guy[2] : Oh my god, [Frozen II]...?
Girl[1] : OH MY GOD, OH MY GOD, OH MY GOD...
Guy[1] : ...what...?
Girl[1] : Are you guys talking about [Frozen II]...?
Guy[2] : Uh... yeh.
Girl[1] : OH MY GOD.
Guy[1] : ...what?
Girl[1] : Like, that movie...?
 scoffs It was such a beautiful, like, movie...?
 I'm gonna end every sentence I say sounding like a question...?
 Oh my god, the movie was like, so perfect...?
Guy[2] : That's that [Frozen II] magic for ya.
Guy[1] : Beautiful movie.
Guy[2] : Classic.

[Jim] doesn't fucking think that at all. [Jim] thinks the movie sucked ass, lets talk about [Jim] for a moment.
Anyone could work with ANY human being, right...? One who consistently managed to show up on time, early, every day, for years, and always did what he was told. Until one day...? [Jim] sees the people he works with standing around the damn water cooler, wasting another Styrofoam cup. He's more observant than other people, so each and every time they want more water..? He notices them ALL wasting these stupid fuckin' cups.

There was a point between the first cup and the last cup where [Jim] was about half-a-styrofoam cup away from making a rash decision, when he finally saw the thing he predicted, and said to himself "That's it, bro." And in a single day, despite years worth of working with AND trusting this individual on a daily basis...? This man I refer to as [Jim] went postal.

Because, the cup dispenser he just filled YESTERDAY or EARLIER that morning was already EMPTY. He works with a bunch of idiots that use a cup (1) time, and then they just throw it away... they think nothing of it when they want to keep talking with the other idiots around the water cooler, so then they go right ahead and take another one... instead of reusing the same god damn cup they JUST threw away.

They may not have even moved more than 15 feet away from the god damn water cooler, either. Then, the moment when the straw broke the camels back, came along... the ill-fated half-a-styrofoam cup of doom made an appearance. And that's when [Jim] snapped... and did the unthinkable. The aftermath looked like this:

[Jim] never had problems at ~~(what the government does to the truth)~~ work and we never suspected a thing had a lot of problems, we always talked around the cooler, ignoring the fact that we each used 7 cups in this 10-minute period of time where we all stood there talking about watching [Frozen 2] with our kids, and argued over how much better it was than the first one...

Because, it wasn't the fact that he had problems.... [Jim] definitely had some problems, bruh. He was raised to think "If you have nothing nice to say...? Don't say anything at all..." And this caused [Jim] to internalize all of the negativity, which eventually caused his frustrations to implode, rather than to be expressed in healthy ways.

[Jim] thought that [Frozen II] sucked. But- because his daughter really liked [Frozen AND Frozen II]...? He had to begrudgingly pretend as if he liked it, because... [Jim] cares about how his daughter feels. The dude had to listen to her talk about it every day non-stop, [Frozen 2] this, [Frozen 2] that. Each time he heard the phrase [Frozen 2], [Jim] had to keep the feeling of wanting to jump out of his fuckin' skin, a secret.

Because, he noticed how awful the dialogue or the story was, like an extended cut of [Paw Patrol]. [Jim] knows that it was just another cash cow... a lot of people made a monumental effort to make a movie that was better than the original, but failed miserably.

In a perfect world, he'd let it roll right off his back. [Disney] occasionally makes a terrible movie, not a big deal, they're not impervious to failure.

But- it is true that organizations spend a lot of money trying to make something even better than before, only to fail miserably. I mean, look at [Alec Baldwin] for cryin' out loud. Dude spent his entire career trying to live up to [Sean Connery] in [The Hunt for the Red October], and mocking former president [Donald Trump] on SNL.

Now he's being charged with manslaughter for killing [Heleyna Hutchens] on the set of the movie [Rust]. How the fuck did (6) live rounds manage to make their way onto the movie set...? Maybe [Donald Trump] paid somebody to get those rounds on the set, because of how often [Alec Baldwin] mocked him, and karma's a bitch. It's not like [Donald Trump] would ever tell anybody the truth about doing something like that if he did... Side point.

I haven't seen the movie. Perhaps [Frozen 2] wasn't as terrible as an [F-35], in terms of 1) budget, 2) badly designed/planned/produced, 3) worse than its predecessor [Frozen/the F-22]. But- I think I speak for [Jim] when I say that people will often butcher things that were 'CLASSICS', and that's why [Robert Zemeckis] won't touch [Back to the Future].

They'll make an attempt to do this REGARDLESS of how many times they were warned, and then they'll be faced with the cold hard reality, that they managed to achieve a worse result than the [classic/original].

Sometimes, they'll have to try and soften the blow of insult being added to injury, by attempting to make a turd look pretty cool. Yeah. Think about how stupid that is.

In this case, the turd being either [Frozen 2] or the [F-35 Lightning], uh- they would've just been better off throwing the entire idea in the garbage and starting from scratch. But- at least with the [F-35] they managed to finally get the fucking thing completed and become a multi-role fighter jet that still performs less satisfactorily than the [F-22]. Same thing applies to the movie [Frozen II].

Like I said, haven't actually SEEN [Frozen II]...? But, my god, there's gotta be somebody out there who thinks that [Kristen Bell] might be the only thing about it that's any good. I'm being casually obtuse here to make a point, the point being, DON'T DEVELOP THINGS THAT ARE EXPENSIVE AROUND A TERRIBLE IDEA JUST BECAUSE IT WILL UNDOUBTEDLY ATTRACT A CERTAIN MARKET OR TARGET PROFILE OF PEOPLE, in the case of [Frozen II], little girls that liked [Sven], and the snowman in the first movie. Or like, [Home Alone III: Not Kevin McAllister]

Because some guy will see the movie, and think to himself “Holy mother of christ, did the writers take an entire coloring book full of LSD or something when they wrote this...?” And, that guy might be: [Jim]. But really, any movie goer like [Jim] who sees [Frozen II], they might think that it was SUCH a terrible attempt...?

Anyone claiming to have legitimately liked the first might start to think “Eh, maybe the first one sucks too...”

Yeah. That's called a “double backfire”, you get (2) backfires for the price of (1).

Yeah, the original did really well and everything, but then people see the second one, and then people just stop renting, ordering, or watching the original because of how bad the second one truly was.

That's that double backfire action for ya.

Anyway, the idiots standing around the water cooler, talking about this dumbass movie for the billionth time...? These people took advantage of this guy, [Jim] whether they knew it or not. Every day, for years, and yet they failed to (respect/acknowledge) how much work this man actually did.

Resultant, [Jim], who flipped out and did the unthinkable, was no longer there to do the work for them anymore. These people finally had to do their own work for a change. But- because they didn't know what the hell they were doing without [Jim]...? Well, they all got fired. Cause... [Jim] did everything.

They still refer to this man that did everything, as a sick and twisted bastard that had a lot of problems. And that's because there are metaphorical ninjas waiting for the perfect weather condition, to jump out of the fuckin' trees, throwing a barrage of shurikens at any unsuspecting passerby.

The way they each feel about [Jim] being gone now is:

“If only [Jim] just kept doing everything, I could still be getting paid a paycheck that I don't have to do anything to earn except pander to the boss man. Jim was an awesome guy – he was not a sick or twisted monster at all, but I will tell people that anyway. Mainly because, if only he didn't flip out for no reason one day and go postal...? Then he could still be making himself useful, doing everything, so that I don't have to.

So, how good could [Jim] really be...?

Miss ya buddy...?

But screw you too.”

^ That is actually an accurate representation of how a lot of people in our society THINK and OPERATE.

That is because... a lot of people in our society are really stupid.

That is the shortest way to convey the sentiment.

Conclusion /-----

They don't really CARE about other people, they don't care about current events, they don't care about stuff like [Uvalde Elementary], [Reno Nevada], et cetera and so forth, because some people are about as fuckin moronic as my friend [Eric Pearson]. Morons like HIM think that people like ME are UNSTABLE, but that's because he's stupid.

The fact of the matter is, his stupidity, obliviousness and total lack of empathy and integrity causes problems for other people in society. He's willing to spin up some bullshit on the spot, and steal things from people, and then try to say that it's not stealing if it's on his property.

Keep telling yourself that, fuckface.

He's too fucking stupid to see the forest for the trees, nor the fuckin' dumbass ninjas in those trees.

Just a bunch of stupid fuckin' predictable moronic ass ninjas sitting around in the fuckin' trees, waiting for the perfect weather condition to cause untold chaos, cacaphony, and mayhem... to throw some fuckin' shurikens at anyone who isn't paying any attention.

Perfect metaphor for people that are casually obtuse about movies like [Frozen II], who haven't even seen the fucking movie, but saying that the movie probably sucks ass anyway. As for the recording that I made on 02/05/23, well, I did not expect to get all of the shit I had to complain about into the recording that I was in the process of making. That's sorta like a don't-buy-any, get-10-for-free. Seriously.

You get me, ranting about my friend stealing my [LTD MH-400] that I let him BORROW, and how I was talking about the RESEARCH that I do regarding the [Belmarsh Tribunal], [Edward Snowden], [Julien Assange], and how I took notes about...

Counselor against [Pompeo]...

How did we get to this level of disobedience of law when it comes to Julien Assange...?

Me → It's because there's some fuckin' morons in our government/society. They're stupid, and they can't help it.

[Pompeo] lives for the notion of playing with his dick in a bathtub for entire days straight, from everything I have observed. Apparently, he's appears to be even more skilled at it than [Andy "Cuntrag" Cuomo].

I don't know why I whipped out that third middle name for [Andy Cuomo], but maybe he occasionally goes through some girl's dirty laundry to find a cuntrag, and then he jerks off (after/while) he takes a whiff of it...
...but it's not quite as bad as [Michael "Bathtub dick-time" Pompeo]

[Pompeo] : Heh.

I am gonna play with my fuckin' dick in my god damn bathtub, for like, an entire week, dude.
Nobody can fuckin' stop me, either.

[Julien Assange], a non-state hostile intelligence agency.

Tell me that guys like [Eric Pearson], or anyone else I rattled off in this fuckin' document, that they'll do the same type of research I do, and then make this shit all sound entertaining and comedic.

Nah...?

Didn't think so.
