[12-20-2022 15:30:07] | Back around (October/November) 2018, I was making videos of the post installation script that <I WROTE> that would install Microsoft Windows (7/8.1/10) using the Windows Deployment Server at:

| Computer Answers | 1602 Route 9, Clifton Park, NY 12065 |

It USED to JUST be a BATCH SCRIPT FILE...? And, I spent a fair amount of time trying to figure that out.

THEN, when I wanted to transfer the arrangement of the (Start Menu/Taskbar) layout, the only way that I could seemingly do that, was by using a PowerShell command, to which I've since forgotten...
I think it was [Export-StartLayout].

BEFORE I started working exclusively with PowerShell, I was literally writing batch script files that were a real pain in the ass, because batch scripts have a LOT LESS FUNCTIONALITY...

Anyway, I sent a video to both DWAYNE COONRADT, and PAVEL ZAICHENKO, and used the music to  $[Metallica - \dots ]$  and Justice for All] in the background.

Literally sent these dudes a video, on how to install Windows on customer devices, without me even needing to be in the stores, and my program, doing this a LOT FASTER than:

| Thumbdrives | the native WDS server | downloading from the internet | % \left( \frac{1}{2}\right) =\frac{1}{2}\left( \frac{1}{2}\right) =\frac{1

Dwayne was (WICKED IMPRESSED/BLOWN AWAY)... He even told Pavel:

Dwayne : Dude, this fuckin' Mike Cook dude knows what the fuck is goin' on, dude...

Pavel : Oh yeah...?

Dwayne : Yeh.

Seems to know how to write programs like a fuckin' ninja and shit, now...

Pavel : Oh god...

No way, bro.

Dwayne : Way.

Dude's phenomenal at it, too...

I'm literally installing Windows onto customers computers...

 $\dots$  and it's taking less time than the thumbdrives, like (5-10) minutes max.

Pavel : No fuckin' way...

Dwayne : ...way.

Pavel : So, tell me more...

Dwayne : Mike figured out a way to install Windows with the Computer Answers background deployed to the customer's computer, the login, the account, everything.

01/25/19 | https://youtu.be/5Cyp3pqIMRs |

Pavel : No fuckin' way...

Dwayne : Way, dude. Dude knows what the fuck is goin' on...

I don't even have to make up a password for the customer, in order to install it... I literally don't have to touch this thing, and it's done installing in like 10 minutes.

Pavel : What about Ninite or whatever...?

Dwayne : He seems to be working on something that automatically downloads the latest version of the files,

AND automatically installs those programs.

Pavel : What... the... fuck...?

Dwayne : I know, dude.

Dude apparently knows what the fuck he's doin'...

Pavel : This is fuckin' stupid, dude.

Dwayne : Nah, I'm literally tellin' ya, this dude knows what the fuck he's doin'...

Pavel : Yeah well, we'll just see about THAT...

Then, Pavel had to call me and talk to me about it. I was talking to him about how I upgraded the network at the shop to GbE so that the network installation would be FASTER than the USB Thumbdrive process. I actually had a habit of going around, and doing Pavel's job...

In fact, here are a few videos of me doing Pavel's job way back in (2017/2018)...

Spectrum Cable Modem Reset	https://youtu.be/LfZW-s0BMow
Network Troubleshooting	https://youtu.be/OnEiGijjOEY
WTEN Weeping Angel	https://youtu.be/-jkDPv9H6BQ

...there are plenty more of me doing some incredibly advanced stuff, at: https://github.com/mcc85s/FightingEntropy

Regardless, Pavel wanted to know more about how I was able to make a program that told the WDS server how to install Windows 10, which led to me making THIS particular video when I was in the Bennington VT shop at:

| 05/19 | Hybrid - Desired State Controller | 514 Main Street, Bennington VT 05201 | https://youtu.be/C8NYaaqJAlI |

Plain and simple, here are some METRICS on how FAST Windows can be installed...

Interface	Rate/Gigabits	Rate/Megabytes
	=========	  ======
USB 2.0	0.5 Gbit/sec	62.5 MB/sec
GbE Ethernet	1.0 Gbit/sec	128.0 MB/sec
USB 3.0	5.0 Gbit/sec	625.0 MB/sec

Even IF the thumbdrive is on a USB 3.0 port, the disk cannot actually transfer data THAT fast. Not unless you're talking about (NVMe/Non-Volatile Memory Express) drives.

They didn't get it... the reason WHY I was the most SUCCESSFUL (TECHNICIAN + SALESMAN), is because...?

[I literally did my research on the parts that I would sell people]. [I'm very skilled at it]. [I'm so fucking skilled at it, that my monthly sales record at the Clifton Park shop in August 2017 still stands, I'm rather CERTAIN of it]. [I spent time working overnight at the shop sometimes, so that Dwayne could log in first thing in the morning, and then customers would waltz in and drop off their $350 payments for the work that I completed the night before]. [I also modified the (workstations/server/network/RAID array), in order to do transfer data FASTER]. [They never thought to do that BEFORE I worked at that store and set that record].

To this very day, they show no signs whatsoever, that they were very appreciative of how I made damn certain that the company kept making a PROFIT. But I suppose they may say I'm making sheer exaggerations. Hence, why I have these VIDEOS that showcase some of the REALITIES involved, in someone that better managed the company.

Dwayne and Pavel both know how much LESS MONEY they're making with me no longer being there. It's that fucking simple.

Anyway, at some point after they saw this video of the post-installation script... ...which is sort of featured in this video...

| 01/19 | Computer Answers - MDT | https://youtu.be/5Cyp3pqIMRs |

By the way, that's the date of the last update to the Microsoft Deployment Toolkit.

Coincidence...? MAYBE... MAYBE NOT, THOUGH. THE UPDATES THEY MADE TO THE MICROSOFT DEPLOYMENT TOOLKIT SORT OF EXACTLY COVER THE CONTENT I FEATURE IN THIS VIDEO...

THAT'S FUCKIN REALLY WEIRD, RIGHT...? It is really weird.

Because it is AS IF, someone from MICROSOFT, was watching what I was doing...

...like maybe (JOHAN ARWIDMARK/MYKAEL NYSTROM/MICHAEL T. NIEHAUS)...

...and then they added some features that directly touched on things I was doing in the video linked above.

Side point.

Pavel got in touch with me somewhere between November 2018 and January 2019, right...? And then he started asking questions about the thing.

Pavel : ...so you wrote this...?

Me : Yeah.

Pavel : There's no way, dude...

You HAD to have used a template or something.

Me : Nah dude, I'm literally talented at everything you could have me do, for this company.

Pavel : You're not a programmer though...

Me : Nah, I'm not.

But I'll start doing it, just to show you how it's done.

Pavel : Mike, it'll take you YEARS to be a good application developer.

Me : Do you remember how I edited the document that the customers sign, when they drop off their devices...?

Pavel  $\,:\,$  Yeah, that was basic HTML stuff.

: Yeah, well, check this out...

Pavel : So, you literally made maps for Quake III Arena back in 2001...?
       : Even BEFORE that, dude.
Pavel : Who made this website for you...?
       : Uh, nah dipshit, I made that website also.
Pavel : You don't need to be so MEAN, dude...
      : Nah, I do, you're a really lazy fuck.
Pavel : Whatever bro.
        You think you could run this company, AND do all of this really cool amazing shit that you do...?
       : Without a fuckin' doubt, bro.
Pavel : Yeah well, the guys would never let YOU be in charge...
       : Yeah they would, if you weren't busy talking a massive amount of shit about me when I'm not around.
Pavel : Mike, I would never, ever do that...
      : Whatever dude. (Yeah you would/do)
        I wrote this script.
Pavel : It's pretty cool.
        Dwayne tells me that he's highly impressed by this thing...
       : That's because I'm literally an expert and I know what the fuck I'm doin'...
Pavel : Yeh, he said that...
      : Anyway, listen fuckface...
        I'm workin' on something that'll blow everybody AND their mother away...
Pavel : ...really...?
Мe
      : Yeah, dude.
Pavel : ...blow everybody AND their mother away...?
Me
       : Yeh.
Pavel : ...you...?
Me
      : Yeh.
Pavel : ...like what...?
       : Something that curb stomps identity theft and cybercrime.
Pavel : Mike, there are experts out there that do that already.
Me
      : chuckles
Pavel : ...what's so funny...?
       : I thought that joke you just told was pretty funny~!
Me
Pavel : Nah, I'm serious.
         There are experts out there that are already curb stomping identity theft and cybercrime...
Me
       : Ok, let's entertain this delusional thought of yours...
         Where are they...?
Pavel : Mike, the (FBI/Federal Bureau of Investigation)...?
         The (NSA/National Security Agency)...?
         The (NYSP/New York State Troopers)...?
         The (SCSO/Saratoga County Sheriffs Office)...?
         Take your pick, dude.
         They ALL fight identity theft and cybercrime.
       : I'm pretty sure that none of those agencies are doing a good enough job (or they need some serious fucking help), and that's why I'm making a product and a service that takes things to the next level.
Me
Pavel : Buddy, you've got your work cut out for ya if you think you're gonna go around...
         ...making the experts look incompetent...
       : chuckle Buddy, I've been doing that to YOU for like checks watch at least (3) years, working for ya.
Me
         Who knows how much longer I'll be doin' that AFTER I leave...
         And, how long I did that BEFORE I ever worked for you...
Pavel : Name (1) time that you've made ME look incompetent...
       : Like, my first day, back in October 2015.
         And basically every single time that I clocked in to do work.
Pavel : Nah, buddy, you needed to learn how to use the system and everything, you weren't THAT GOOD...
       : I remember the first company meeting where you told everybody that I had generated the company about $5K in the first (3) weeks at the company.
         ______
         | I could literally walk into the store, at ANY point in time... |
          ...and generate that much in less than (1) week.
         | MAYBE even in (1-2) days, tops.
Pavel : That was just blind luck, plain and simple.
       : Then I helped Dwayne get (3) consecutive sales records at that store, within the first (6) months...
         ...this was right after [Matthew Roerig] left the company.
Pavel : That doesn't prove anything...
       : Yeah it does.
         It proves that I have more of a can-do attitude than YOU, or anyone else that's worked here.
Pavel : Mike, you really gotta cut it out with telling me how lazy or incompetent I am...

I've literally been doing more than YOU have, since way back in the 90's and stuff. Pavel : Whatever, dude. People don't really care about the details... : Nah...? Pavel : Nah... : Pretty sure they do. Pavel : They don't, Mike. All people really care about, is whether you're FRIENDLY, and you give them good service. : So, if you're FRIENDLY, and you RIP PEOPLE OFF...? Me They won't care about that...? Pavel : Not if they don't KNOW they're being ripped off... : Sounds like something who has a weak sense of morality would say... Pavel : Mike, "incredibly weak sense of morality" is my middle name... I mean, Dwayne's too. : I know. I can't actually outdo either one of you at that. Me Pavel : Ha. See what I mean...? You THOUGHT you were tough shit and everything, right...? Look at how far that's gotten ya... _____ | You're a spineless coward that talks shit to other people, it causes people to develop PREJUDICE. | Many of the kids I went to Shenendehowa with, they do that shit too. Some people in the GOVERNMENT do that shit too... They have no 1) spine, 2) sense of morality. | Good for you. You're still nowhere even remotely close to as talented as I am, and you know it. _____ : You called ME, to talk to me about this script. Pavel : That's because me and my guys thought it was a VIRUS. : Nah, it's not a virus, it's just something that THEY could've been making, but- weren't. Pavel : Anybody could do this shit, dude. You're not that special. : Howcome this isn't a thing that the shop already has...? Pavel : I was eventually gonna get around to doing something this COOL... : Nah, I don't think so. I am the only guy in the company to literally go store to store and upgrade the network... ...as well as terminate my own CAT6 cables, and configure the routers and switches. Pavel : Donovan and Cliff did that too... : ...so that's why each store was running 100Base-T ethernet...? Pavel : ...what's 100 Base-T ethernet...? : It's something that the OWNER of COMPUTER ANSWERS should KNOW. Pavel : I mean, I PROBABLY know what that means, dude... : Yeah, well, doesn't sound like you fuckin' know what that means without me having to tell you. That means you don't do any research or work. Pavel : Yeah, I do, dude... I go to each store and I collect the content of each of the lock boxes at each individual store. That's actually extremely taxing and difficult... : Oh, it is...? Me Pavel : Yeah, dude. You want this job...? Me : Uh... Pavel: The job is way too tough, dude. You wouldn't even know where to begin... --\__/--\__/--\__/--\__/--\__/-Anyway, I'm SOMEWHAT hyperbolizing the conversations that Pavel and I would have. Pavel actually really enjoyed how often I talked smack to him. He and I would go back for hours at a time... He would say something like: "...what's 100 Base-T ethernet...?" And I would say "It's a tenth of the speed of Gigabit ethernet..." And then he would say "Well, I knew that, dude..." And I would say "Doesn't really seem like it at all, dude..." And then he would say "It's just your OPINION that it doesn't really seem like I knew what 100 Base-T Ethernet really was..." We would talk for (hours/days/weeks) just like this, basically every conversation he and I would have, he would ask a question that I ASSUMED, the owner of a company named COMPUTER ANSWERS, would KNOW. But- he ALWAYS had the last laugh. Fuckin' slick bastard.
